

White Hot® Ducky

munchkin
it's the little things.

LUCKY DUCK.

Babies (especially newborns) have extremely sensitive skin, and it can be difficult to get their bath temperature just right, because what feels comfortable to us may not always be comfortable for them. You can prevent unnecessary bath-time discomfort with the White Hot Ducky, a new take on the classic rubber duck. This hard-working bath toy has innovative White Hot technology that warns you when bath water is not suitable for baby's delicate skin. Simply place the duck in the tub, then lift up to check the blue disc on the bottom. If it says HOT, add cool water or let the bath cool down before placing baby inside. Aside from being a bath safety must, this cute duck is also water-tight, mildew-resistant, and fun for baby to play with, making it a true bathing best friend!

Features

- White Hot Safety Disc reveals the word HOT in white when bath water is too hot for baby (40 degrees and above)
- Fun, easy-to-grasp size and shape
- Water-tight to prevent sinking, squirting, and mildew
- Floats and makes a great bath toy
